

STUDENT SUPPORT TEACHER, MIDDLE SCHOOL

Job Information

Job Title	Middle School Student Support Teacher
Location	Durham, North Carolina
About Duke School	Founded in 1947, Duke School has as its mission to "inspire learners to boldly and creatively shape their future." Duke School offers an exceptional project-based learning environment that seeks to develop high-level analytical and critical thinking skills in all of its students. Duke School is a preschool through 8 th grade day school enrolling approximately 500 students.

Job Summary

Duke School is seeking a full-time Middle School Student Support Teacher. This position works in collaboration within assigned classrooms/grade(s) with teachers, administrators, guidance counselors, students, and their families to provide direct instruction and/or classroom support to students with special learning needs. The successful candidate must be professional with strong communication skills, be a strong collaborator, and realize that confidentiality and trustworthiness are crucial components of this position.

The ideal candidate has a 3-year minimum experience as a special education teacher and a special education degree is preferred. This permanent position is full-time beginning as soon as possible.

To Apply

Interested candidates please email your resume, including a list of references along with a cover letter to teach@dukeschool.org. Diverse candidates encouraged to apply. Compensation is commensurate with experience and abilities and reflective of local salary levels.

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATORY POLICY: Duke School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in its hiring practices and encourages people of traditionally marginalized groups to apply for employment.